EXEMPTION CERTIFICATE FOR TRAVELING TO OR FROM FRENCH POLYNESIA

Passengers traveling to or from French Polynesia must show this certificate to transportation companies before boarding, along with any proof supporting their compelling reason for traveling, and to border control authorities. Passengers who fail to comply will be denied boarding or entry into the mainland.

For everybody, a sworn statement pledging the absence of COVID-19 symptoms, of any contact with someone who tested positive, and a promise to undertake an antigenic or PCR test upon arrival, must be attached to this certificate.

For travelers going to French Polynesia: passengers aged 11 and over are required to provide a COVID-19 valid negative test result done less than 72 hours before boarding

To be completed by the passenger (all the following lines are mandatory):
